MUSICAL CLUBS END LONG ITINERARY

Oneida Concert Last on Schedule—Past Season Was Most Successful in History of Organization

Hamilton's Musical Clubs have seldom, if ever, completed so successful a season as that concluded by the concert last night in Oneida. Beginning with the appearance at the Prom concert, the work of the clubs has improved steadily and rapidly until a degree of excellence was reached that was at its highest in the New York concert of April 6. Stage facilities, or the lack of them, often caused some deviation from the regular unified program, yet every concert was a success.

The annual Easter trip started on Monday, Apr. 2, in Binghamton. On Monday afternoon, a delightful reception was given the men on the clubs at the home of Thomas J. Mangan, '94. The concert was presented in the High School auditorium under the auspices of a high school fraternity. That it was a big success from every standpoint was evident from the accounts in Binghamton papers. To the efforts of Ed Couper, '20, may be ascribed much of the credit for the affair. At Oneonta, under the direction of Edwin R. Moore, '17, the second appearance of the trip brought even more commendation than that of the previous evening. The high school auditorium proved to be an excellent place for the type of program presented by the clubs and the whole affair was marked with excellence. Despite the fact that the clubs struck Albany in the midst of a busy social season, there was a good crowd at the Vincentian Institute to greet the Hamilton men. To Dr. Harold W. Thompson, '12, Frank M. Wright, '05, and John Q. Howe, '24, goes the credit for staging a successful concert in Albany in the face of big obstacles. The men on the clubs the grateful to the University Club for its hospitality extended to them while in Albany. A long jump found the clubs in Hempstead, L. I., on Thursday night for the fourth concert of the trip. The varied program pleased the large crowd immensely; Al Morris crowned the evening when he lit a cigarette with a Thompson-Seton matchless apparatus, thus showing himself a good Boy Scout. In the intermission the local scout troop, for whose benefit the concert was staged, gave an exhibition of scoutcraft. Adrian H. Courtenay, '03, took able command of the local arrangements in Hempstead.

The New York concert in the Waldorf-Astoria on Friday night proved beyond all question that it ranks with Prom and Commencement as one of the big annual affairs in the life of Hamilton men. Alumni, undergraduates, and friends of the College, filled the great ballroom, and they were enthusiastic over the performance. So great was the success of the program Friday night that it seemed the logical climax of the trip. Apology is due those who vainly attempted to listen in on the concert, for the radio broadcasting had to be cancelled because many of the selections on the program did not have their publishers' permission for radio work. Norman J. Marsh, Jr., '14, who was in charge of the concert, deserves the sincere thanks of every man on the Hill for

PLANS FOR SPEAKING CONTEST COMPLETE

Annual Sub-Freshman Day to be Held on May 12—Interesting Program Planned

Representatives from over fifty of the principal high schools throughout the State will hold preliminary speaking contests within the next few weeks for the Hamilton College Inter-Academic Prize Speaking Contest to be held here Saturday morning, May 12. The prize speaking contest, as in former years, is one of the leading features on the program for Sub-Freshman Day. Other features for the day will include a baseball game with Union at Clinton, and movies in the evening at Commons.

"Wally" Johnson, '15, field secretary for the college, is in charge of plans for the various speaking contests, as well as Sub-Freshman Day. Arrangements have been completed to hold the preliminary speaking contests in five districts throughout the state. The New York district contest is being held under the auspices of the Hamilton Institute for Boys, with M. Archibald Shaw, '82, presiding. Thirteen high schools will be represented, including Stuyvesant, Boys' High, Sayville, DeWitt Clinton, Newton, Evander Childs, Jamaica, New Rochelle, Eastern District, Townsend Harris Hall, Washington, Theodore Roosevelt, and the Hamilton Institute for Boys. The Batavia district contest is being held the same evening in the Methodist Church, Batavia. S. A. Sherwin, '10, will be chairman. These high schools will take part: Rochester East High, Charlotte, Albion, N. Collins, Canisteo, Batavia, and the Hutchinson-Central, Lafayette, and Masten Park of Buffalo. Last year, George Beebe, '26, a Buffalo boy who attended the Hutchinson-Central of Buffalo, won the prize speaking contest on the Hill. The Syracuse district holds its contest Friday evening, Apr. 27, at the Lincoln School, on Vine St. Albert A. Getman, '11, is in charge of this district. Syracuse Central, Fulton, Cazenovia, Binghamton Central, Elmira Free Academy, Gouverneur, Ogdensburg Free Academy, Newark, Fairport, and Warner are the high schools participating.

The Albany district preliminaries are scheduled for the evening of Apr. 28, at the Auditorium of the State Teachers' College. Harold W. Thompson, '12, who made arrangements for the Musical Clubs' concert, is also in charge of this. Ossining, Kingston, Milne, Albany, Hoosic, Johnstown, Whitehall, Saratoga Springs, Holyoke, Schenevus, Chatham, Hudson, and Nyack high schools will have representatives at the contest.

The Utica district takes in the following high schools: Utica Free Academy, Waterville, Rome Free Academy, Ilion, Mohawk, Lake Placid, Saranac Lake, Holland Patent, Sherrill, and Oneida. The contest will be staged in the Utica Free Academy on the evening of May 4. Edward S. Babcock, '96, will act as chairman.

Aside from notifying the various high schools and prep schools of the Sub-Freshman Day, it has not been attempted on any large scale to send special invitations to prospective Hamilton men. However, it has been left to the fraternities to decide upon inviting any guests they may desire

DEBATE SCHEDULE BROUGHT TO CLOSE

St. Lawrence University Defeated in Close Debate—Season Has Three Victories and Three Defeats

DECISION 2 TO 1

A team composed of W. Lewi, '24, Capt., J. L. Albertson, '24, Gualtieri, '25, and J. Lewi, '25, alternate, victoriously ended Hamilton's debating season by defeating St. Lawrence University at Canton on March 26 on the question: Resolved, That the debts owed by the Allied Powers to the United States as a result of the World War should be cancelled. The Hamilton team upheld the affirmative of the question and obtained a two to one decision. The Hill News, the undergraduate St. Lawrence publication, was very fair in conceding the victory to Hamilton. This paper gave Hamilton the credit for being better debaters in the following words: "Pitted against a team that has made oratory a fine art and rebuttal a science, the St. Lawrence negative team lost by a judges' vote of two to one."

Albertson opened the debate in a manner which was "assurance itself that the affirmative was in the right," as the Hill News puts it. His argument was that Europe was not in a position to pay these debts.

Gualtieri, as second speaker for the affirmative, stressed the harm that receipt of payment would do the United States. Lewi closed the affirmative's constructive argument with the issue that the United States was morally obligated to cancel.

St. Lawrence's constructive argument was a masterful and well-nigh conclusive handling of the economic issues involved. All indications at the end of the constructive arguments pointed to a decision for St. Lawrence. The St. Lawrence speakers in order were A. E. Monetti, '25, R. D. Dullea, '23, and A. S. Torrey, '24.

In the rebuttal Hamilton made brilliant oratorical pleas for cancellation on the moral and sentimental grounds. The cunningly constructed economic argument, on which St. Lawrence had relied to win the debate, was substantially admitted and used to the advantage of the affirmative of the question by the Hamilton speakers. Hamilton won the debate in the rebuttal, the true test of debating, by the force of oratory. The judge casting the vote for the negative team submitted with his vote a page of remarks in which he stated that, although the Hamilton team had been better speakers and debaters, he was forced to cast his vote as he did, because of the economic argument advanced by the negative.

The judges of the debate were the Hon. W. D. Ingra of Ogdensburg, Charles Reynolds of Canton, and James Akin of Ogdensburg. Dr. Richard Eddy Sykes, President of St. Lawrence, presided.

The Hamilton debaters were fairly successful during the last debating season, Hamilton winning three out of six debates.

A team composed of Yates, '23, Capt., Langtry, '23, and Chretien, '26, alternate, lost the first debate of the season to Smith College at Northampton, Mass., on Mar. 7, with the af-

TEAM PICKED FOR ANNUAL PENN CLASSIC

Five Men Chosen—Alison Elected Captain—Hamilton to Compete in Large Field

Last Friday afternoon the time trials for the quarter-milers were held in the Russell Sage Building. This was to find out what men to send to Philadelphia for the Penn Relays. Five men qualified and probably all five will go to the meet. These men were Morris, '23, Fenn, '23, A. Alison, '24, V. Alison, '24, and Watkins, '25. Watson Thompson will also go to compete in the two mile run. He finished second in this event last year and has an excellent chance of carrying off first honors this year.

A. Alison and Morris were on the relay team last year, but Snell and Scott who also ran last year are not in college. Fenn has been doing good work on the hurdles, and V. Alison is good in the half mile. Both of these men made fine time in the trials and it is expected that they will greatly strengthen the team. Watkins is a comparatively new man on the track but has done very well so far this season. A. Alison was elected captain of the relay team.

The outdoor track is now being raked and rolled and will undoubtedly be used the latter part of the week. The lateness of the Spring has made it impossible for the men to do any outside work at all. The weight men and jumpers are still working on the mats in the gym. They are in good condition and great things are expected of them this season. Fenn and Harvey Valentine will do most of the hurdling for the team. The loss of Captain Van Hoesen will be greatly felt in the distance runs, but Thompson, Yates, and Clark are still going strong.

This year the Buff and Blue relay team will run against Swarthmore, Bowdoin, Boston University, Colby, Fordham, New York University, U. S. Coast Guard Academy, and the University of Maryland.

LEHMANN ELECTED EDITOR OF 1925 HAMILTONIAN

At a meeting of the Sophomore Class held after chapel last Saturday morning, Alan D. Lehmann was elected Editor-in-chief of the 1925 Hamiltonian. He has been a member of the Life Board since freshman year and this year has served on the Press Board.

"Al", as he is popularly known, comes from Buffalo, where he prepared at Nichols School. He was editor-in-chief of the Nichols News during his senior year there. His election to the editorship of the Junior year book comes as a well-deserved honor. He was chairman of the Sophomore Banquet Committee, is a member of the D. T. Club and Alpha Delta Phi.

D. T. TAPS 1926 MEN

On Thursday morning, April 12, the annual tap day for D. T., the honorary Sophomore society, was held after chapel. The men chosen from the class of 1926 are as follows: Sigma Phi, Chase; Alpha Delta Phi, Holley and Jackson; Psi Upsilon, Ricketts and Brush; Theta Delta Chi, Squier and Shields; Delta Kappa Epsilon, Anthony and O'Connell; Chi Psi, Payne and Mann; Delta Upsilon, Orcutt and Robson.

FENCERS DO WELL IN INTERCOLLEGIATES

Johnson and Ogilvie Reach Semi-finals—Ogilvie Elected President of Association for Coming Year

Hamilton College was represented in the Intercollegiate Fencing Association for the first time in its history, when the Buff and Blue fencers traveled to New York City to the intercollegiate championships held at the Hotel Astor April 12th and 13th. The team did not qualify in the finals in the foils, which form the basis of the award of championship, but advanced to the semi-finals in the sabre events. In the epee, the team broke even but was unable to qualify in the semi-finals. The two men that carried off the most honors for Hamilton, were Capt. Ogilvie and Johnson. After the meet was over, Ogilvie was elected president of the Association for the coming year.

Hamilton shwed its best efforts in the sabre events. The team composed of W. Johnson, '24, and Capt. Ogilvie, '24, advanced to the semi-finals, which were run off Friday evening in the Grand Ballroom of the Astor. Our men were eliminated, however, and the Army took the team championship. Castner, of the Army, intercollegiate sabre champion last year, retained the title.

The epee team, composed of Don Kittell and Carl Stevens, '24, did not fare so well as the sabre men. Each man won two and lost four in the preliminaries. The qualifying teams on their strip were Harvard and Penn. Don Kittell defeated Thompson of Penn, who won all the rest of the bouts.

The preliminary foil matches were run off in three strips with Navy, Army, and Penn on the first strip; Yale, Columbia, and Hamilton on the second strip; Harvard, Dartmouth, and M. I. T. on the third. On the first the Navy won 12, Army, 11, and Penn 4. On the second strip Yale won 17, Columbia 8, and Hamilton 2. On the third Harvard won 13, Dartmouth 10, and M. I. T. 4. The Army, Navy, Yale and Harvard qualified for the semi-finals, and Yale proved the best.

The two days of the meet were crowded with bouts. On Friday morning at 3 o'clock the bouts were still going on and it was 2:15 Saturday morning before the final bout of the meet was over.

The following is the summary: Novice bouts for the James B. Clemens medal: First round, Gregory defeated N. Morse, Harvard, 8-6; Van Winkle, Columbia, 7-4; M. Soit, N. Y. M. A., 6-4. Packer defeated Fidangue, Columbia, 10-1; Silva, Riverdale, 10-6; Santa Ana, M. I. T., 9-3. Semi-finals: Gregory defeated by H. H. Brown, 10-6, and by McDill, 7-0. Packer defeated by Speir, 4½-4, and by Farley, 8-5½. Packer defeated Wolf, 4-4½, and Michel, 7-4½.

Epee: Kittell defeated by Watson, Harvard, and by Shean, Harvard, Kittell defeated Liao, Dartmouth, and Thompson, Penn. Stevens defeated by Shean, Harvard, Thompson, Penn., and Cavas, Penn. Stevens defeated Watson, Harvard, and Laidlaw, Dartmouth.

Sabre: Johnson defeated by Kernan, Yale, 7-2; Hastings, Yale, 7-4. Johnson defeated Heitzburg, Dart-

The New Policy.

Whenever a change is made in the editorial staff of a paper, it is customary for the new editor to outline his new policies, and broadcast to the four winds the great improvements that the readers of the paper may expect.

There was a period in recent years when Hamilton Life seemed to be losing its prestige as the authentic representative of the undergraduate and the connecting link not only between the faculty and the students, but also the alumni. However, Life seems to be coming back into its old position, and it is the hope of the newly elected board that this fine work may be continued.

There will be no radical change in the editorial policy of the paper. Hamilton Life has always stood for the things that would be of the greatest benefit to the college, and those movements that have this end in view will always receive what support is possible through the columns of the paper.

A college newspaper should be the means of bringing the news of the college directly to those people who are interested. The college newspaper is the means by which the alumni may learn what is going on in their alma mater, and also what their classmates and friends in college are doing outside. It is the hope of the new editor that Life may more fully supply this need and become the direct means of linking together the scattered numbers of loyal Hamilton supporters.

If at any time an alumnus or friend of the college has some matter that they would like to bring before the attention of the college, Life will be only too glad to offer its columns as a way to present it. Communications are invited and welcome, and it is hoped that if any alumnus comes across news that might be interesting to the rest of the alumni body that he will send it to this paper.

In short, the new policy will be one of continuing the work that has been done before, and in doing everything that will make Hamilton Life an invigorating influence in the life of the college.

NOTED HUMORIST PLEASES AUDIENCE

Christopher Morley Delivers Fourth Myers Lecture—Praises Hamilton

Christopher Morley, columnist for the New York Evening Post and a noted modern poet, delivered the fourth Myers lecture of the year in the chapel on Wednesday, March 28.

Mr. Morley was entirely different from the usual lecturer both in the subject and delivery of his lecture. His conversational style and pleasant manner soon gained the approval of his large audience.

Mr. Morley spoke of his college days at Haverford, and called Hamilton the only other typical small college in the country. At Oxford, as a Rhodes scholar, he was a classmate of Professor Rudd.

His clever and interesting remarks on almost every subject gave him an opportunity to recite many of his poems. One of the verse-forms he spoke about at length was the rondeau. As an illustration of this, he recited a rondeau which he had composed on the train that afternoon. It was later published in the New York Evening Post. A mathematical poem entitled "The Circle" also drew much applause. Other poems dealt with familiar subjects in a light and humorous manner.

At the conclusion of the lecture, the audience demonstrated its approval by such continued applause that Mr. Morley was compelled to recite several more poems to his enthusiastic listeners.

FRESHMAN BASEBALL TEAM LOOKS PROMISING

About twenty freshmen have been practicing regularly in the cage in the gym for slightly more than a month. The squad as a whole has been working hard, and indications point toward a fairly successful season.

So far, Coach Prettyman has been drilling the squad thoroughly in the rudiments of the game, giving them much batting practice, and a certain amount of conditioning work. Practice is being held five days a week. It is expected that the squad will be outdoors by the middle of the week. There will be about three weeks of outdoor practice before the first game.

Van Vleet, Nicholson, and Pierce will be depended upon to do the pitching. The catcher's position will be filled by either Payne or Martin. Both men have shown considerable ability. Martin is particularly adept at throwing to the bases. Earlier in the season Courtot, Ricketts, and Martin were chosen to play on the varsity squad. Other men who have been doing well are Brush, Freeman, and Crane.

A schedule of about seven games is being arranged for the yearling team by Manager Jones. It is planned to have them play here on the days that the varsity has out of town games.

—George E. Van Kennen, '86, of Ogdensburg has been appointed special deputy attorney general by Governor Smith to represent the state in the hearings on the recently introduced Rabenold Hydro-electric Power Bill. He was for several years a member of the State Conservation Commission and is considered an authority on water power development.

How Electrical Engineering began

IT IS not enough to experiment and to observe in scientific research. There must also be interpretation. Take the cases of Galvani and Volta.

One day in 1786 Galvani touched with his metal instruments the nerves of a frog's amputated hind legs. The legs twitched in a very life-like way. Even when the frog's legs were hung from an iron railing by copper hooks, the phenomenon persisted. Galvani knew that he was dealing with electricity but concluded that the frog's legs had in some way generated the current.

Then came Volta, a contemporary, who said in effect: "Your interpretation is wrong. Two different metals in contact with a moist nerve set up currents of electricity. I will prove it without the aid of frog's legs."

Volta piled disks of different metals one on top of another and separated the disks with moist pieces of cloth. Thus he generated a steady current. This was the "Voltaic pile"—the first battery, the first generator of electricity.

Both Galvani and Volta were careful experimenters, but Volta's correct interpretation of effects gave us electrical engineering.

Napoleon was the outstanding figure in the days of Galvani and Volta. He too possessed an active interest in science but only as an aid to Napoleon. He little imagined on examining Volta's crude battery that its effect on later civilization would be fully as profound as that of his own dynamic personality.

The effects of the work of Galvani and Volta may be traced through a hundred years of electrical development even to the latest discoveries made in the Research Laboratories of the General Electric Company.

When the Geology 8 fossil-snatchers go to Albany, the following costume is suggested: Alpine hats with feather, checkered lumber-jack shirts, knickers, golf stockings and cake-eater sport shotes, also large May baskets for captured ring-tailed orthosaurusi and other specimens, and handy portable Coronas with tripods for dashing off memoranda on the spot. To add a touch of the great outdoors, a long Boy Scout staff is recommended. This costume will also be found socially useful around Albany the night before.

The completed tennis schedule for the spring, as announced by Manager Alison, consists of nine matches, six of which will be played on the Hill. It runs as follows:

Apr. 28, Syracuse at Hamilton; May 5, R. P. I. at Hamilton; May 12, St. Stephens at St. Stephens; May 16, Syracuse at Syracuse; May 18, Brooklyn P. I. at Hamilton; May 19, Rochester at Hamilton; May 26, Union at Hamilton; May 30, Union at Union; May 31, Springfield at Hamilton.

Captain Fitzgerald intends to run during the season a ranking list of the men on the squad, similar to those in use in large metropolitan tennis clubs. Whenever it is possible, the first four men on this list will represent the college in its matches. Positions on the list will be gained or held in accordance with a system of challenging, which, in its main details, is substantially as follows:

A man may challenge anyone not more than two places ahead of him on the list.

The match must be played within three playing days of the date of the challenge, or else is lost by default.

If the challenger defeats his man, they change places; if he does not, there is no change.

No man may challenge the same man twice in succession.

No man may accept a challenge while he has another pending.

The loser must report all matches to the captain, so that the list may be kept up to date.

According to Captain Fitzgerald, the men who stand the greatest chance of playing this year are Bradley, Ogilvie, Price, R. Thompson, and Kelley.

Practice will be started on the court as soon as the weather permits. The new courts back of the Athletic Building will not be in shape to be used this year, as some 1500 loads of clay must be hauled up to complete them.

As usual, the court will be reserved for men on the squad after 4:30 on week-days.

GRIDIRON MEN TO REPORT SOON

Regular spring football practice will commence, according to Coach Carroll and Capt. Brush, as soon as the gridiron becomes dry enough, probably within two weeks. As Coach Carroll will be busy with the track candidates and Capt. Brush and Ex-Capt. Warren will be busy with other spring athletics, someone else will have to instruct the candidates, probably Ex-Capt. Fowler. Spring practice will consist of light work, kicking, passing, and handling the ball, with thorough instruction in the fundamental ground work of the game. The linemen have been working in the gym for the past two weeks as preliminary practice, as most of them will be out for track this season. With a strong nucleus of lettermen left to build on, the Coach and Captain are confident of turning out a successful eleven in the fall.

LATIN CLUB TO REVIVE OLD PLAY

First Play Since 1919 to be Presented Under Direction of Dr. Chase—Road Trip Planned

The cast for the Latin play to be given in May has been picked and the men are hard at work on their parts. The play this year will be the "Mostellaria" of Plautus. This is considere one of the best of the ancient comedies and rivals in humor and colorful scenes the best comedies of today. The scene throughout the play is a street in Athens and the action takes place in front of two houses. One of these is reported to be haunted, hence the name of the play, which means "The Ghost." It is in front of this house that the drunken scene and the banquet take place.

The plot of the play centers around the sudden return home of an elderly gentleman who has been in Egypt for the last three years. His son, Philolaches, with the able assistance of an impudent slave, Tranio, the leading character in the play, has been recklessly spending his father's money. He and his friends dine and wine nightly, and he has even purchased the freedom of his mistress. He has installed her in his house and is in the act of celebrating gloriously with his friend, Callidamates, and the latter's sweetheart, when word is received of the return of Theopropides, the father.

Tranio, in order to prevent the old man from getting into his house and discovering the condition of things, tells him that the house is haunted. This story is believed, along with a cock-and-bull tale of the purchase by the young man of the house adjoining. Tranio is fertile in devices but in the end is of course caught. With characteristic effrontery, he gets out of the scrape. The liveliest moments come when the banquet is broken up, following one of the best drunken scenes in comedy; when the old man is frightened by the ghost, and when Tranio takes to the altar to escape his old master's anger.

The play will be performed in the Gymnasium a few nights before May 12th, the date for the New England performance. To keep the cast down for the road trip, more than one part will be assigned each actor; this follows the Roman practice. While the lines are in Latin, the action is such that it will be easy to follow the play, and a very full libretto will be distributed.

Plays previously given by the Latin Players are "The Captives"; the "Menaechmi"; the "Rudens"; and 'Trinummus." These plays have been given regularly every three years, but the performance last year was postponed because of the absence of Prof. Chase. One of the interesting features of the play will be the incidental music, after the ancient mode. This is played behind the scene by two clarinets and a flute. The apparent player in flowing costume appears on the stage.

The principal characters and cast are as follows:

Tranio, a slave, Frank H. Wood; Grumio, a slave, J. C. Toaz; Philiolaches, a young man, J. B. Burke; Philematium, a courtesan, Harold Thomas; Scapha, an old maidservant, J. P. Gualtieri; Callidamates, a young man, J. W. Chase; Delphium, a courtesan, J. C. Toaz; Sphaerio, a slave, H. A. Thomas; Theopropides, an old man, R. H. Chastney; Mysargyrides, a money-lender, J. W. Chase; Simo, an old man, J. P. Gualtieri; Phaniscus, a slave, J. C. Toaz; Pinacium, a slave, J. B. Burke.

Arnold Hall will assist with the stage-setting.

NOTED LAW SCHOOL ALUMNUS DEAD

Henry F. Coupe Succumbs after Long Illness

The Oneida County Bar lost one of its older members on Thursday, Apr. 12th when Henry F. Coupe, of the Hamilton College Law Shcool, class of '73, died at his home in Utica. He had been failing in health for a long time, but had been able to continue his work until last January, since which time he had been confined to his home. Because of the death of his father when Mr. Coupe was but ten years old, he had to look after a farm and get an education at the same time, and he was unable to enter college until he was twenty-seven. After graduation, he continued his studies in Conkling and Lord's office, and was admitted to the bar while studying in the Seymour office. When his brother James finished his law studies, they established the firm of Henry F. & James Coupe, which has been in continuous business for nearly fifty years. Mr. Coupe served one term as special city judge, beginning in 1883, and was a school commissioner from 1890 to 1894. Mayor Thomas E. Kinney appointed him a fire and police commissioner, which office he held for a year and a half.

Mr. Coupe was a good example of what can be accomplished through industry and honest effort. He knew neither fear nor favor and always remained firm in what he believed to be right. He was more than ordinarily successful in his profession and his death will be sincerely mourned by all who knew him. He sent his sons to Hamilton, and they are Arthur Vincent, '08, Leo Owen, '10, Delta Kappa Epsilon, and Henry Francis, Jr., '21, Delta Kappa Epsilon.

firmation of the question: Resolved, That the French invasion of the Ruhr is justified.

The remaining debates were all on the question of the cancellation of the Allied war debts. Hamilton won second place in the triangular debate between Lafayette, Union, and Hamilton on Mar. 16, when Fuess, Capt., Wood, Connell, and Briggs, alternate, lost the negative of the question to Lafayette at Easton, Pa., and W. Lewi, Capt., Albertson, Gualtiri, and J. Lewi, alternate, won with the affirmative of the question over Union at Clinton. On the same evening a team composed of Burroughs, Capt., Lehmann, Perrine, and Kirby, '25, alternate, was defeated by the Hobart negative team at Geneva. Burke, '23, Capt., Burroughs, '24, Fitch, '23, and Bohn, '26, alternate, defeated a team from Middlebury College at Clinton on Mar. 23, with the affirmative of the question.

NEW RULES FOR OPERATION OF LIBRARY

Professor Ibbotson calls attention to the following rules which must be adhered to by all students using library privileges:

1. Books placed on reserve shelves for specific courses must not be drawn from the Library without the written permission of the Instructor. The permit must be filed with the charging card when the book is drawn.
2. Encyclopedias, dictionaries, and other general reference books must not be taken from the reading room.
3. Periodicals, bound or unbound, may be drawn from the Library ordinarily only over night, and for not more than twenty-four hours without the consent of the Librarian. Certain scientific periodicals may be drawn for a longer time with special permission.
4. Other books may be drawn for two weeks, and renewed for a like period if not wanted by another reader.
5. Reserved books from the shelves in the reading room should be replaced after use.

The following is from Article V of the rules of the Honor System:

Every student shall be on his honor not to remove any book or periodical from the Library without recording the loan, nor to deface or mutilate Library property.

All these rules are designed to facilitate the use of the Library, and to give equal rights and privileges to all students. Every student is expected to lend his aid in maintaining them, and to report to the Honor Court any dishonorable conduct that he may observe in connection with the Library.

his work. To the following patronesses is extended the gratitude of the management and the men of the clubs: Mrs. Herbert Griffen Aldrich, Mrs. Henry Harper Benedict, Mrs. Abel Edward Blackmar, Mrs. William MacLaren Bristol, Mrs. Daniel Burke, Mrs. Samuel Franklin Engs, Mrs. Norman James Marsh, Mrs. Bayard Livingston Peck, Mrs. Elihu Root, Mrs. Elihu Root, Jr., Mrs. Alexander Coburn Soper, Mrs. Chauncey Shaffer Truax, Mrs. Joel J. Squier.

It was hard for the men to recuperate from the big event of Friday night for the Jamaica concert in the Richmond Hill Auditorium on Saturday evening. Yet here, even without the curtain facilities which had insured the success of every other performance on the trip, a good program pleased the fair-sized audience. The Hamilton Five furnished dance music after each concert, and much favorable comment was heard on their work.

Credit for the season belongs in a large measure to Fitch and Langtry, leaders of the clubs, whose debate on the merits of popular and classic music still remains in question. The work of the soloists, the quartette, and both clubs deserves praise, for all contributed important parts to the great season now complete.

PLANS FOR SPEAKING CONTEST

for this occasion. In fact all such invitations are expected to be issued by the fraternities and alumni rather than through the college authorities. Sub-freshmen will probably arrive on the Hill Friday afternoon. In the evening a college dinner will be held in Commons. Saturday morning at 11 o'clock ,the inter-academic prize speaking contest will be held, and in the afternoon there is to be a baseball game with Union. Classes will be out at 10:30 on May 12. Saturday evening as in former years, the Y. M. C. A. is expected to put on a movie show in Coommons. The picture to be shown is the famous "Manslaughter."
